Homecare operator

Helping Hands provides a wide range of tailored home care services, ranging from its hourly visiting service, to 24-hour live-in care. It also offers a nurse-led clinical care service which enables individuals with complex conditions to be supported at home. The business is headquartered in Alcester, Warwickshire and operates from over 123 branches across the UK.

The provision of high-quality service to its customers and a rewarding working environment for its carers are central priorities for Helping Hands. The company was awarded a top 50 place for the second consecutive year in the annual Glassdoor Employees' Choice Awards: Best Places to Work in 2019.

The right tools for growth

Talent

We supported Helping Hands to expand its senior leadership team, including CFO and Managing Director. We also introduced Andy Hogarth, former CEO of Staffline plc (and former investee of Livingbridge), who became CEO of the Group in May 2019.

“Our ambition at Helping Hands is to be the brand which is synonymous with quality home care in this country. In Livingbridge we believe we have found a partner who understands our business, shares our ambition and who will help us reach our objective.”

Chair, Helping Hands

About Livingbridge

Livingbridge is a mid-market private equity firm with offices in the UK, the US and Australia, investing in fast growing companies valued up to £300m.

Our team have been backing growing businesses together for twenty years. We've done it over a hundred times, turning many into household names both at home and abroad. We get growth.

We understand the people behind growing companies in consumer markets; healthcare and education; technology, media and telecommunications; financial services and business services, and help them achieve what's right for them and their business.
