INVESTMENT YEAR: 2004

REALISATION YEAR: 2008

SECTOR: Services

Environmental advisory and consultancy services

SLR provides environmental consultancy services in the UK and US, advising clients on a range of strategic and site specific environmental issues. It has particular strengths in the energy sector, the private sector waste management industry, and the planning and development sector, working for many of the major commercial developers.

We invested to provide capital and guidance to evaluate, assess and deliver a programme of UK and international acquisitions, namely Insite Environments and Seacor Environmental.

From the start of the journey together

Roll out

We supported the opening on new offices in the UK and US in 2006, with over a third of SLR's revenues generated outside of the UK at point of exit.

We have supported SLR through an impressive period of growth, where its geographic footprint, range of services and reputation have all developed strongly. This success has been underpinned by the exceptional culture within SLR, which today has over 220 employee shareholders.
